"A REAL, HONEST-TO-GOODNESS, DELICATESSEN WITH A COMPLETE LINE OF DOMESTIC & IMPORTED FOODSTUFFS"

Gershon's, the Capital District's oldest kosher-style deli, was opened by Irv and Lena Gershon in 1954; the original location was directly across the street from the present site. The current locale, 1600 Union Street, debuted in 1956. As time passed, Irv and Lena responded to their customers' demands and developed a thriving catering service, eventually selling the deli to their nephew Bob Lessner in 1973. He in turn sold to his adopted son and long-time employee Tony Lauria. For the next 31 years with his business partner Lou Gregory (who retired in 2009), Tony presided over this legendary eatery with unwavering attention to every detail, unrivaled commitment to quality and an ever-present, thousand-watt smile. The Gershon's Tradition continues with Tony's daughters Antonia "Toni" Nelson and Bridget Battease at the helm. They remain true to the mission of Gershon's founders and the legacy of their beloved father... fresh food, freshly prepared and courteously served. Time honored recipes still prevail and continue to delight customers - young and old - through the decades.
